

POMONA

HEALTH INDICATORS FOR PEOPLE WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITIES

INTERIM REPORT
MAY 2005 – APRIL 2006

The POMONA project is carried out by a working group with financial support of the European Commission 2004130

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The authors would like to acknowledge the contribution of all those who have participated in this project to date

Firstly, to those contributors with intellectual disability, their family, friends & advocates who have provide guidance and support.

To service providers, policy makers and other stakeholders for their interest, support and contribution to this project.

Finally, to the participating partners and researchers for the enthusiasm and hard work that drives this project.

The authors retain full responsibility for any inaccuracies that may appear.

June 2006

This report was prepared by the Project Manager:
Christine Linehan, Senior Researcher, UCD Centre for Disability Studies, School of Psychology,
University College Dublin, Belfield Dublin 4